Team:

This is a good example of "Fair Use" of our materials. I see the reporter's point, but using parts of our films for a compilation is likely to be held as fair use.

This movie is an example: http://www.xvideos.com/video1327165/cumshots_and_cum_eating_8

Now, there is an argument that it is not -- that they took "the money shot" and given that they took that portion, it takes the "heart of the matter." However, if we brought a claim against this, we would look bad. I think it would do terrible damage to our brand. If we did a DMCA takedown, we would be subject to a counter-notification AND attorneys' fees.

So, this is a very good example of us needing to be careful. Please do NOT file a takedown request on this video. And, when the report does state that it is a compilation, etc, then we should err on the side of not taking it down.

Message: From the site Xvideos.com this compilation film has two clips of your films at around 18:30. I reported last week that there were other parts of your films on some of the other "Cumshots and cum eating" series, these still seem to appear on Xvideos, I think you should check them out
